SAG STATE ADVISORY GROUP (SAG) TRAINING GRANT

WHAT IS THE SAG TRAINING GRANT?

The State Advisory Group (SAG) Training Grant program, administered by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, provides free and customized training and technical assistance to SAGs appointed under 42 U.S.C. Section 5633(a)(3), as these groups advocate for the goals of the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 2002. The training and technical assistance that SAG members receive serves two broad purposes. It enables them to 1) better understand the juvenile justice system in their respective states or territories and 2) become more familiar with all programs and facilities serving youth. Thus the SAG members may more easily carry out their roles and responsibilities to ensure and enhance an effective and responsive juvenile justice system within their jurisdictions.

Browse around, and use what you can. A drug-free workplace can be safer, healthier, and more productive. And it is within the reach of all!

The purpose of this Drug-Free Workplace Kit is to provide public and private workplaces, from small to large and from local to global, with credible, authoritative, evidence-based information, resources, and tools for producing and maintaining drug-free workplace policies and programs.

The Kit was assembled by the Division of Workplace Programs (DWP), in the Center for Substance Abuse Prevention, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (often simply SAMHSA elsewhere in the Kit), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

DWP has unique and nationally important regulatory, knowledge development, and technical assistance roles and responsibilities for Federal and non-Federal workplaces, with respect to their drug-free workplace policies and programs.

For example, DWP is responsible for two principal activities mandated by Executive Order and Public Law: 1) oversight of the Federal Drug-Free Workplace Program, which aims to eliminate illicit drug use in the Federal workplace; and 2) oversight of the National Laboratory Certification Program, which certifies laboratories to conduct forensic drug testing for Federal agencies and federally regulated industries.

To help it meet these two responsibilities, DWP has developed a variety of resources and techniques for addressing substance abuse in workplaces, in part through the provision of primary substance abuse prevention, early
